Kingston, Jamaica based company GraceKennedy is proud to announce that their four pack jerk sauce now ranks as the Amazon choice on the online marketplace. This comes after the sauce, which is also one of the most affordable on Amazon, particularly in multi-buy packages, has received nearly 300 positive reviews. The company prides itself in making authentic jerk sauce, available in both hot and mild strengths.

"Our jerk sauce is the real deal," says a representative from GraceKennedy. "Just a little bit of this sauce on your favorite meat, and you will feel as if you have just transported yourself to Jamaica. One of the things that make our product so unique is that it is actually made on the island, which guarantees that it is the real deal. We're very happy to see that even more people can now access our sauce thanks to the popularity it has received on the Amazon marketplace."

To ensure that people can get the most out of their Grace jerk sauce, the company also includes a free recipe e-book with every purchase. In so doing, people can experiment with different recipes, using the sauce on chicken, pork, beef, shrimp, and more. Indeed, jerk sauce can go with a variety of meats.

Those who have tried the sauce have hailed its authentic flavor. They have been very happy with the fact that it is available in multiple strengths, but mainly with the fact that it truly tastes as if it came straight from the islands. "Went to Jamaica and fell in love with the food. Got back to the States and ordered some Grace Jerk Seasoning and got busy in the kitchen making some jerk chicken. It was priced well and shipped very quickly....," says an Amazon customer.

Interestingly, the sauce has also started a lot of discussions. Many people have asked questions, and GraceKennedy's own customers are taking the time to answer them. In true Jamaican style, it seems, the sauce is bringing people together over the joy of food. Indeed, questions range from the best use of the sauce to just how authentic is its taste.
