October 30, 2017 -
Vibrate Fitness, a business in South Pasadena, CA, has announced that they have attended the Maricopa Home Show at Westworld in Scottsdale, AZ. The event took place on October 20 to 22, and the company had occupied Booth 1903 in which they demonstrated their vibration platform machines. More details about the event and the presentations that the company gave are available on their website at vibratefitness.com.

Nils Vidstrand from Vibrate Fitness says: "We were very excited to be allocated a spot at the Maricopa Home Show and it was great to see so many people there. The entire event was a huge success and we look forward to taking part in future events. We have also been able to build a strong network of partners, thanks to the help of the HGTV's Property Brothers, Drew and Jonathan Scott."

The company regularly takes part in events where they showcase their vibration platform machines and the benefits they offer. For those who were not able to attend the recent show, full listings of future events are available on the company's website, http://www.vibratefitness.com/events/. This year alone, they have been present at the Arizona State Home Show, the 15th Annual Conscious Life Expo, the Maricopa County Home & Landscape Show, the SAHBA Home and Garden Show, the New Living Expo, the 77th Sturgis

Motorcycle Rally, the American Naturopathic Medical Association, the 45th Annual Cancer Convention, the ICES The International Congress of Esthetics and Spa, the SAHBA Home and Garden Show, and the Maricopa Home Show WestWorld Scottsdale.

Nils Vidstrand adds: "This year has been great, and next year is going to be even better. We can't wait to present at more events, explaining the various benefits our vibration platform machines offer not just for general health and fitness, but also in the treatment of various illnesses."

Vibration platform machines such as those offered by Vibrate Fitness are increasing in popularity. While they originally gained a lot of attention for their ability to help people lose weight, it is now a known fact that they offer a variety of other benefits as well. These benefits are all highlighted at the various shows that they attend.
