Bowling Green, Ky. - Mike Breen, a personal injury lawyer in Bowling Green, Kentucky, is adamant about informing the public of the various insider tips when dealing with insurance companies. Recently, Mike posted a blog responding to individuals wanting to know what to do in the face of low insurance settlement offers.

"I just felt as though this was the perfect opportunity to educate the public on things that happen on a consistent basis," Mike Breen said. "Insurance companies are looking to retain as much money as possible so low settlement offers are quite common."

In his article, Breen discusses the steps one needs to take in order to combat an issue like this. From taking the time to fully examine the offer to challenging an agent with a counter offer of sorts, car accident lawyer in Bowling Green, Kentucky, provides a ton of information that will help stave off any low insurance settlement offer.

"I really try my best to fit in as much relevant content as I can into my pieces," Breen said. "The more one knows about insurance settlement, the easier it is to come out on top."

Mike Breen has been in the business of personal injury law for over 30 years. He was selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers in 2012 and again in 2016. Breen has also written books, articles, and takes pride in teaching other lawyers about the ways to protect people from harm.
