Tile-cutter and installer, Leon's Countertops, occupying a warehouse space in 9550 Freeway West Properties, is offering silestone and soapstone countertops.

Leon's Countertops provides affordable and prompt cutting and installation and guarantee professional cleanup. Based in Minneapolis, they proudly serve their local community as well as surrounding counties, including: Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, Dakota, Carver, Saint Paul, Rice, Anoka, Washington, and Wright.

Leon's Counter Tops offers one of the largest selections of tile-types. One of their most popular, are eco tiles, which are made from 75% of recycled materials such as glass, mirror, earthenware, porcelain and vitrified ash. Eco tiles are a great ecological alternative. Sensa tiles, a maintenance-free premium granite product which comes with a 15 year stain warranty, is also available. Each slab of is one-of-a-kind and carefully quarried by our provider.

They also offer dekton stone, a durable, non-porous surface which prevents liquids and gasses from penetrating the surface, making it easy to clean. Hanstone, another popular tile, is a luxurious, yet low-maintenance product which combines natural quartz and is twice as hard as granite. Geos, a blend of recycled glass; Geos surfaces are durable and popular for their flecks of color and beautiful. Soapstone, a product of nature, soapstone is a metaphoric rock and each piece has unique characteristics which makes it challenging to find exact matches.

"We work tirelessly to make sure our clients get exactly what they are looking for," says Manuel Leon of Leon's Countertops.

Leon's Countertops is able to order a variety of granite, ceramic and silestone tiles to fit the custom needs of their customers. Silestone is made of quartz and epoxy to create a scratch-resistant countertop and is a non-porous surface, making it highly resistant to stains.
