November 01, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Stafford, Va. ? James Matthews, the owner of Express Employment Professionals of Stafford, a staffing agency in Stafford, VA, was recently granted an opportunity to sit in on an educational employer panel.

Hosted by the non-profit organization, Beacon Light, and held in Manassas, Virginia on Oct. 11, the employer panel was the ultimate opportunity to help new individuals moving into the country who are searching for jobs.

Express Stafford Owner James Matthews said, ?The employer panel was a great experience and allowed me to share my best practices with motivated individuals looking to have a fresh start in America.?

Roughly 25 people attended the event, many of whom participate in the program that assists those from other countries looking for work. From how they can translate their skills to the best methods for building a stable career foundation from the ground up, the individuals were informed of the insider tips and practices from industry experts and businesses like Matthews and his employment agency in Stafford, VA.

?I look forward to sitting in on another panel when the opportunity arises,? Matthews said. ?The more knowledge I can share with those who need it, the better.?
