November 03, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dan Vega Pensacola FL, is known as America's #1 Results Guy. He is an entrepreneur, speaker, business coach, and talk show host. He is also the brains behind a popular two day boot camp, which has helped many people in running a successful business. He has now announced that he will soon be hosting more boot camps in various locations across the country.

Dan Vega himself says: "My boot camp has proven to be so popular that I have had numerous requests to offer it in different localities. I am all too happy to oblige and am currently securing specific dates and locations. My intention is to visit every major city in every state, so watch this space for specific locations and dates."

The boot camp offered by the Pensacola speaker aims to teach people how to make money in a failing economy. To achieve this, he discusses how sales can be doubled by focusing on proven to be effective but low cost marketing strategies. Furthermore, he helps attendees to structure their company in such a way that they can be successful.

Those who have attended previous boot camps have been wholly positive about their experience. For instance, Robin B. from San Jose, CA, says: "This 2-day business boot camp is amazing. Ive been through both T. Harv Eker and Tony Robbins courses and they dont even compare with what Dan Vega has to offer. In the two weeks since I went through Dan's boot camp, I've closed more sales and made more money than I had in the previous three months - it's going to be a stellar year. Thank you Dan."

As a Pensacola speaker Dan Vega also aims to motivate his audience, rather than solely providing them with information. Hence, he will help them to develop a successful mindset, demonstrating the pitfalls they should be aware of and how to overcome them. At the same time, he teaches attendees important time management skills, as well as essential negotiation strategies. Finally, he teaches them how to achieve any goal, such as ensuring that their product or service is of the highest possible value. Once the dates for the new boot camps will be announced, it is expected that spaces will fill very rapidly.
