

Dr. Kappel Offers Advice to People Considering Botox in Her New Blog

November 02, 2017

November 02, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Newport Beach, California - Stefani T. Kappel, M.D. says she has many patients coming to her asking whether or not Botox is right for them. As a result, she decided to dedicate her most recent blog post to answering some of the most common Botox questions she answers.

The dermatologist explains that Botox is a way of fighting visible signs of aging on the face, but that it requires additional treatments to maintain the results. Dr. Kappel hopes that knowing more about Botox will help her patients and readers make an informed decision about which treatments are best for them.

Dr. Kappel's blog at www.stefanikappelmd.com further describes what causes many men and women to consider Botox in the first place and attempts to dispel some of the myths surrounding the treatment. She wants her blog to be a place where people can go to find expert information regarding many of the most common dermatological and cosmetic procedures. Realizing there is a lot of incorrect information circulating on the internet, Dr. Kappel has chosen to share her knowledge with readers using this platform.

Dr. Kappel offers a variety of cosmetic procedures from facial rejuvenation and Botox to lip injections in Newport Beach. For more information about skincare and cosmetic surgery in Newport Beach, or to set up a consultation or schedule an appointment, call (949)239-0494.
