November 13, 2017

November 13, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

FunGig is a company in San Diego, CA, that aims to bring together people who want to experience the city and all that it has to offer. The company has long been in conceptual phase, but they are proud to announce that they are now fully launched. Their first "Funbassadors" and "Funseekers" have already registered on the site and are ready to experience in person fun things to do in San Diego. Full details about the company and what they do are available through their website.

Steve Young from FunGig says: "There is a new place for exciting "in person" things to do in San Diego. It's called FunGig. FunGig is a marketplace for fun. There are Funbassadors (sellers) and Funseekers (buyers). All FunGigs fall under 1 of the 8 major fun categories: Art & Music, Food & Beverage, Fun & Leisure, Kids Activities, Nightlife, Sightseeing & Tours, Sports & Outdoors, and Events."

FunGig, as their website www.fungig.com/ shows, is about sharing information on great things to do in San Diego. In addition, it is also about sharing experiences. A Funbassador can post gigs (things to do) on the website, and a Funseeker can then sign up for those things. The two then meet in person before they go and experience the fun. Afterwards, they review each other, which is beneficial for other users who want to experience or share their own fun gigs.

While the system is very new, it has already caught the attention of many people in San Diego. A number of Funbassadors and Funseekers have already met and shared experiences. Many more have registered their details on the site. All have expressed how much they are already enjoying themselves. For instance, Derrick O. says on Facebook: "This sounds like an amazing marketplace. Finally a place to go and find a local that can show me the best cycling or surfing spots. I can't wait to start using FunGig.com for all my Fun Things to Do in San Diego."

The FunGig website at <https://fungig.com/> is now live and ready for action. Those wishing to share their gigs and join in on the fun are encouraged to check it out as soon as possible.
