

Provider of Nurse Staffing in Portland Celebrates 4-Year Anniversary

November 06, 2017

November 06, 2017 -
Portland, Ore. ? Express Healthcare Professionals, a leading provider of nurse staffing in Portland, OR, is proud to celebrate four years of providing exceptional clinical staffing support to the Pacific Northwest.

Since its inception, Express Healthcare has been an innovative addition to the healthcare industry. Over the last four years, the agency has grown to be a leader in the northwest for clinical staffing support, providing assistance to over 115 current healthcare facilities. In the past 15 months alone, the flagship office in Portland has supported and guided the opening of an additional 12 offices across the United States, allowing for better healthcare staffing opportunities in new locations.

Express Healthcare Owner Julie Tate said, ?We're so excited to celebrate this anniversary and our company's achievements! Our team works incredibly hard to support our northwest communities and expand that support across the United States.?

As a top nursing agency in Portland, OR, it?s imperative for the Express Healthcare team to provide the best available resources and employment opportunities in the country. The office currently supports over 250 active clinicians with per diem, 13-week contract, and temp to hire staffing positions.

?Over the last four years, we have accomplished so much thanks to our innovative and ambitious team members," Tate said.
