

Pensacola Attorneys Discuss the Importance of Premises Liability

November 06, 2017

November 06, 2017 -
Pensacola, Fla. ? As leading attorneys in Pensacola, FL, it?s crucial for the Gross & Schuster team to be well aware of premises liability. In many cases, though, tons of individuals affected by unsafe premises aren?t familiar with their rights.

That?s where Gross & Schuster comes into play. Property owners should be concerned with maintaining safe premises, whether residential, public, or commercial. Failing to do so could result in a nasty injury and ultimately an aggressive lawsuit.

?We make it a priority to investigate the cause of premises liability accidents when an issue arises,? Terence Gross said, who is part owner of Gross & Schuster, P.A. ?And we won?t hesitate to pursue compensation from parties whom neglect to address the issue.?

The Gross & Schuster team premises liability practice includes two key elements: slip and fall accidents and construction site accidents. These just happen to be the most common (and the most devastating) occurrences for the lawyers in Pensacola, FL, to deal with. Regardless, the team of skilled attorneys is always prepared to take the helm by aggressively pursuing justice.

?This is just another necessary practice in our gamut of legal obligations to our community,? Terence said. ?We will never stop pursuing what?s right.?
