The Ihara Team - Keller Williams Honolulu has announced that they have listed a new luxury Honolulu beachfront property, which is located in 1 Puuikena Drive. The listing can be seen on the <http://www.oahuirealty.com/> website. The luxury smart home is currently available for sale at a price of $6,900,000.

"Relax as you enjoy sweeping ocean views from every room in the main house," says co-owner and co-founder of The Ihara Team, Julie Ihara. "The upstairs great room boasts of cathedral ceilings, custom coral rock wall, integrated theater system, large fleetwood sliding pocket doors and Invisirail balcony that brings in Hawaii's beauty. Impress guests in your gourmet kitchen that includes stainless steel thermador appliances, and separate, Asian mahogany paneled, refrigerator and freezer with coordinating custom cabinets."

The property is uniquely placed in private surroundings. It has only one neighbor and it has a land area of 15,938 square feet. It has four bedrooms and 4.5 bathrooms, which means it is the perfect family home, but it is equally good for those who want to have the space to entertain. In fact, the property even comes with a separate guest recreation room and stairwells on both sides of the property, so that guests can have their own privacy as well.

The Ihara Team, as shown on their website <https://www.iharateamhawaii.com/>, are committed to providing people with the opportunity to live to the best of their abilities and in the most comfortable way.
