November 13, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fort Lauderdale, FL based accessories company Ashley Bridget has announced the launch of their new skinny cuff bracelet in their Amazon Canada storefront. The hair tie bracelet is proving to be very popular, both for people's personal use and for gift giving. This is also due to the fact that it comes with a gift box and a certificate of authenticity.

According to Scott Hutchison from Ashley Bridget, "This stylish fashion accessory is now available in two metal types: rose gold based and gold-based metal base. The modern woman is active, career oriented and always on the go. Anything that she owns, if it can double up as something else, is considered valuable. Our focus has thus been on building jewelry that marries functionality with style."

As a store, Ashley Bridget has developed a wealth of different types of fashion jewelry. What sets them apart from similar stores is that they offer pieces that have exquisite quality at affordable prices. Furthermore, all of the jewelry pieces have something that is completely unique. Their hair tie bracelets are the perfect example, as it's a product that combines practicality with style to create a piece of jewelry that can be valued as much for its aesthetic sense as for its usefulness.

These hair ties have a diameter of 2.75 inches (6.985 cm) - making them large enough for most wrists. These bracelets can secure one small to medium sized hair tie. The bracelet has been designed such that the cuff can hang around the wrist without slipping off. Whenever one doesn't require their hair tie, they can wrap it around the ends of the cuff in a secure manner, without having to worry about the band falling off.

These products are already proving to be a huge hit with the buyers, with one review stating "I have long hair and need hairties around all the time. Keeps things looking a bit more classy. Packaging is great, and shipping fast." For more information, please visit Ashley Bridget's official Amazon Canada storefront.
