November 27, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The A-Team, a real estate agency in Fort McMurray, Alberta, Canada, is proud to celebrate three and a half years in business. In that time, they have set themselves apart as the go to agency for people who need to buy or sell a home or want help with moving. They have also earned a five star reputation, something they are particularly proud of.

Tom Albrecht, owner and founder of The A-Team, says: "When we opened our doors, we wanted to make sure that people found moving home as easy as possible. From selling their old home to moving into their new dream home, we are there every step of the way. We do everything we can to make sure our clients make the right decisions by ensuring that they have the necessary knowledge and experience."

The A-Team regularly shares information with their clients on new rules and regulations within the real estate industry. Mainly, they help people sell their property and purchase a new one in a manner that is easy to understand and stress-free. This method is clearly paying off, as the company has experienced rapid growth over the past 3.5 years. In 2016, they made 105 sales. In 2017, so far, they have already made 134 sales. They have also been able to attract a total of six licensed agents and they will expand on this if required.

Those who wish to view their properties can do so through their website, their Google maps page at <https://goo.gl/maps/4gggBiEjxbA2>, or they can visit their office.

The A-Team has also been able to set themselves apart as experts in their field. They have received numerous positive reviews on both Google and Facebook. Lukas V.C., for instance, says on the company's Facebook page: "Tom Albrecht helped me find the perfect house and then fought tooth and nail to get me the best price. Honestly a pleasant experience dealing with the A-Team through and through. They are first class in market knowledge and will back it up with the effort to close the deal. Have recommended to all my friends."
