Pensacola, Fla. - As an established public speaker, Dan Vega in Pensacola, FL, makes it an ultimate priority to keep the public informed on ways to promote business. Recently, Vega shared information on social media titled, 12 Things You Didn't Know About Webinars That Will Blow Your Mind.

Published by Inc. Magazine, the article suggests that even though webinars are at times monotonous and boring, they are very much still a powerful tool. Webinars' inexpensive, easily accessible, and relatively quick qualities make them a go-to tool for promoting or disseminating information.

Dan Vega said, "I really enjoyed taking the time to read this detailed article and I'm glad that I got the opportunity to share it with my social media audience.

The article is packed with details on why webinars are so popular and how they can become even more prominent in an ever-evolving economy. From tips on the length and frequency of webinars to methods on making the event more of a discussion, rather than a presenter shuffling through slides, Inc. Magazine's piece is sure to provide any eager entrepreneur like Pensacola Dan Vega, with a proper means of presenting.

"The valuable tips and statistics revealed by Inc. Magazine should help any business owner or entrepreneur with their webinar efforts," Vega said.
