December 08, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Ashley Bridget is a popular business in Fort Lauderdale, FL, known for its unique bracelets and bangles. They are proud to announce that they have relaunched their line of bracelets for women, in time for the holiday season. Indeed, all bracelets are proving to be very popular as stocking fillers and thoughtful gifts.

Spokesperson for Ashley Bridget, Scott Hutchison, says: "We are very proud to be able to offer our line of bracelets again this holiday season. After their popularity last year, we knew we had to replenish our stocks. Already, we have heard from customers who have purchased additional bracelets for themselves, or who have bought them as unique gifts for their loved ones."

One of the company's most popular line of products is that of the skinny cuff bracelets. These bracelets, which are available in silver and rose gold, can be worn individually, or as stackable bracelets for a unique effect. Additionally, it is possible to place a hair tie around the cuffs, making this bracelet highly practical as well. Scott Hutchison adds: "No longer will people have to worry about not having an elastic band with them, or cutting off their circulation by putting it around their wrist. Rather, they can make their bracelet completely unique by simply attaching their elastic band to it."

Hair tie bracelets are proving to be a particularly popular gift this holiday season. Many young girls have asked for them on their Christmas lists, but more mature women are finding them equally practical. The Ashley Bridget models are suitable for women of all ages, as they are available in neutral metals, which can match any outfit. All bracelets are also presented in a beautiful gift box, which adds to their elegance. This is something many customers have also been very appreciative of. "It's such a pretty way to hold a hair tie until you are ready to use it. The package comes with a nice gift sachet bag and 2 hair ties. Makes a nice gift....," says an Amazon customer.

People are encouraged to view the full Ashley Bridget collection to make their own selection in time for Christmas.
