

Florist in Pensacola Discusses Why the Holidays is the Season for Poinsettias

December 08, 2017

December 08, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola, Fla. ? The holidays are here and KellyCo, a leading florist in Pensacola, FL, is excited to see the blooming of Poinsettias as Christmas approaches. KellyCo firmly believes that now more than ever is the time to indulge in decorations involving poinsettias for customers.

Poinsettias, a flower species indigenous to Mexico, are well known for their red and green foliage, resembling the colors of Christmas. They are great for putting together Christmas floral displays and a beautiful addition to add in or around homes thanks to their beautiful look.

Michael Paris, who is the owner of KellyCo, said, ?Poinsettia season is here and we want our customers to know just how vividly pleasing these flowers are within or around one?s home.?

KellyCo takes staying on top of the best blooming flowers for the season very seriously. When customers want to know about ways to decorate their homes or what to put in their gift baskets in Pensacola, FL, KellyCo is on the scene to assist.

?They are the perfect flowers for the holiday season,? Michael said. ?They have a deep connection to that Christmas feeling and go great with our gift baskets. We highly recommend poinsettias to anyone before the year ends.?
