December 15, 2017

December 15, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cville Real Estate & Construction, based in Midlothian, Virginia, has reported that they recently received a five star customer review for their services. The company published the review showcase video on December 5, 2017. Cville Real Estate & Construction serves Hanover County and the greater Richmond, Virginia area with their construction and real estate services.

The video, which can be seen at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BibNyrp6dIE>, is from a Richmond area homeowner, and highlights the services received from Cville Real Estate & Construction for a home renovation done recently. The homeowner states in her positive review that the company more than met their expectations and that they offered outstanding service that was finished in a reasonable amount of time.

Glenna Pritzlaff, the Richmond area homeowner, says, "Greg and his team are talented and professional. We were on the fence about doing an addition and renovation of our home and our expectations were far exceeded. The dedicated staff and subcontractors worked around the clock to get the job done. The quality and attention to detail is top notch. I highly recommend Cville Real Estate and Construction."

The staff at the company states that they always appreciate when their customers take the time to leave them a review for the services provided.
