December 21, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Louisville, KY ? Awards Center, a leading supplier of trophies in Louisville, KY, is on the hunt to make things happen this holiday season. In light of Christmas, the company has decided to reveal what products are in and looking to win for the holidays.

Ugly sweaters, mistletoe awards, and more are decking the aisles of awards and embroidery shops in the area. Even various technological gifts like Bluetooth and smart home devices are making a way to be showcased as prominent gifts to give. This year, before the ball begins rolling, Awards Center wants to ensure that customers know what to give and what not to give to their loved ones.

Awards Center owner Jason Malone said, "Christmas is just around the corner and we're already witnessing the excitement on our customer's faces. We can't wait to see what holiday ideas they have in mind."

As a top supplier of promotional products in Louisville, KY, it's evident that Awards Center loves to bring joy and happiness to its customers during the holidays. Customers are suggested to take a look either online or in-store at the products offered by the shop while remembering to stay up to date on any news or trends in the area regarding this month's hottest holiday products.

"We urge our customers to stay on alert for more news coming out of our shop on the latest and hottest products for this holiday's festivities," Malone said. "They're sure to make this Christmas one of epic importance."
