June 26, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Scientific Pet Supply, a company based out of Stevenson, MD, has announced that they are now offering a free eBook on dog training to any site visitor with no purchase necessary. The company is recognized for their Pet Stain and Odor Remover product, which currently holds a majority of 5 stars in ranking on their online sales portal, and can be found at <http://www.amazon.com/gp/product/B00L2UV3X0> The product is described by the company as follows:

"If your furniture, carpet or other surfaces are not harmed by water, this product is safe to use. It is effective on stains and odors caused by urine, feces, vomit, blood, or other organic material, whether from pets or other sources. By removing stains and odors, it removes the embarrassment you feel when people come into your home. Feel proud that you're supporting U. S. jobs and using a product that won't harm the environment (or pets or humans). Enjoy your pet, knowing that if they should have an accident in the house, you are prepared to deal with it."

The company has shown a sincere sense of passion in their quest to help pets and their owners, and offer this free eBook as an incentive toward higher standards of companionship and behavior. The book can be obtained easily by entering an e-mail address in a specially located form on www.scientificpetsupply.com. Using this form also opens the doors for pet owners to continue receiving information on animals, upcoming promotions and product launches, and more from Scientific Pet Supply. Those who download the eBook are under no obligation to continue receiving these notifications, but the company seems genuine in their quest to share this interesting information with customers and animal enthusiasts.

The currently popular Pet Stain and Odor Remover can be purchased for $22.95, and comes with a 100% customer satisfaction guarantee in which buyers can receive a full refund if they do not find the product up to their standards. Scientific Pet Supply reportedly stands behind this solution wholeheartedly, and customer reviews, which can be seen online help to support this feeling, as many buyers seem to be smitten with the results they are achieving. One such satisfied product user said the following regarding their interaction with the stain and odor remover:

"Usually, I grab a washrag & the dish soap-which leaves an orangish or bluish tinge on the carpet. Not this time! The odor remover smells good & is so easy to use! I didn't even have to scrub as hard as I usually do. It took no time at all & left no orange or blue spot on the carpet. I still have most of the bottle left! I will be keeping this on hand from now on."

Scientific Pet Supply invites new and current customers to follow them online through their social media feeds, such as Facebook, and to visit their website and sales portal regularly for new product information, sales, and to access their free eBook. They also invite pet owners to leave their own feedback and reviews following use of their product as they hope to continue serving customers to the best of their ability.
