Publishing house Sovereign Education Media, which is based in Chicago, IL, and formerly known as Sovereign Language Press, has expanded into new markets. Initially, the company only published language and communication books. The company is a small press publishing house committed to bringing together talented authors and dedicated team members to set the standard of excellence for today's diverse readership. More details about the company's plans can be found http://www.sovereignedmedia.com/.

The spokesperson for Sovereign Education Media Stacey Towson says: "We have long had a focus on languages in particular, but we came across a number of new authors who we believed are not to be missed. The time felt right for us to start exploring different topics, particularly since we have always aimed to publish books that were both educational and enjoyable. We're very excited about our new authors."

One of the company's most popular books was '7 Weeks to a Better American Accent', which was an educational series for native Mandarin speakers. Now, they have expanded by adding the popular personal growth expert, Ariel Benet Savant, to their list of authors. "The Declutter Guide" and a number of other books were authored by Savant. Additionally, they have added Tracey Ingram, author of books such as "Accessibility - Disabled World Travels: Safe Senior Travel Made Easier". People are encouraged to like the company's Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/SovereignEducationMedia/ and share their views on the latest books and authors.

Now that the company has expanded, they also have a wider range of offerings of books in their collection. These include Savant's 'Declutter Guide - How to Organize Your Life in 2 Weeks or Less', 'Feeling Good Now - How to Be Happy and Find Inner Peace in 30 Days', and 'The Power of Confident Thinking - How to Master Information Overload and Time Management', as well as Ingram's first volume of 'Accessibility - Disabled World Travels - Safe Senior Travel Made Easier', and '7 Weeks to a Better American Accent for Native Mandarin Speakers'. The publishing house is always on the lookout for new authors and books to add to their collection. They aim to improve everybody's reading experience as much as possible.
