February 15, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Massey, Stotser & Nichols, PC (MSN Attorneys), based in Birmingham, AL, have announced that they have recently created a new commercial about the law firm and have also launched a new website. Both clearly highlight how the firm is a team of lawyers who all act as one.

Senior Partner Randy Nichols from MSN Attorneys says: "Our team of Alabama trial and transactional attorneys has a broad range of knowledge and experience. We draw from each others' experiences to provide our clients with a greater level of support. This has afforded us the opportunity to cover many issues within an array of legal arenas."

The MSN commercial delves deeper into the full service that the law firm is able to provide. They offer help in all areas of law, from real estate to family law to general corporate litigation. It also highlights how effective the team works as a whole, building on their individual strengths, while always remaining cost effective at the same time. In particular, it highlights the strength of attorneys Anne Lamkin Durward and Stephanie Weems, who were both listed by B-Metro Magazine as part of the Top Women Lawyers in 2016 and 2017.

The video also highlights a client experience, who puts into words how much help he has been able to receive from MSN Attorneys. Eddie, who is the client, says: "The thing that I have come to find is that they're so dependable. They've just always been there when I needed them. I feel like if I needed help at two o'clock in the morning, I can make a phone call and I would have all the help I needed."

As part of the new website launch, MSN Attorneys have also built a more active social media presence. The commercial video, for instance, is available through their YouTube channel. Meanwhile, they have also launched their LinkedIn company page, which highlights the different members of the team and their individual skills in greater detail. Furthermore, they have launched their Twitter and Facebook pages, all of which can be used to contact the firm directly. Last but not least, their new website also offers live chat facilities, meaning that people who need help are immediately able to receive it.

No representation is made that the quality of the legal services to be performed is greater than the quality of legal services performed by other lawyers.
