Tacoma, Wash. - Express Employment Professionals, a leading staffing agency in Tacoma, WA, celebrated their General Manager Monika Lewis's 20 year anniversary with Express during the month of January.

Monika Lewis has been instrumental in the success of the Express Tacoma office and is a valued member of the team. She currently holds the position of General Manager and has been a part of the Express Employment Professionals team since 1998.

Express Tacoma Owner Jan Schwenger said, "We don't know where we would be without Monika's guidance and commitment to employment solutions in Pierce County. She has helped our business grow from the very beginning."

Monika began her career 20 years ago as a part time receptionist as she finished her bachelor's degree in Business & Marketing. She has since risen in the ranks and is now the General Manager of the employment agency in Tacoma, WA, due to her multiple successes within the organization. In addition to working with the internal team, she enjoys meeting with local businesses to discuss hiring solutions as well as offer tools, resources, and services to help meet production goals.

?Monika is a joy to work with. We value her determined attitude and she is a great example for employees and associates alike. She has been an imperative part of the company culture in our Tacoma office, and we are more than grateful to have her with us! said Schwenger.

For over 30 years the Tacoma Express office has provided exceptional staffing services to Pierce County Employers and Job Seekers.
