February 05, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola, FL ? When it comes to winter storms, Florida is not familiar with them. Elite Mechanical Systems, LLC, a leading Pensacola HVAC company is set to equip its customers with all the proper tools and knowledge on staying safe. To make sure the public is informed about winter safety, the company wants to share some safety producers.

Never panic when disaster strikes, the company says, as it is important to remain calm and relaxed so matters don't get worse. This season has showed weather conditions that Florida has not seen in years, and Elite Mechanical Systems, LLC team is here to help. Recently, the team has released a set of valuable tips to help people stay calm and prepared.

Elite Mechanical Systems, LLC owner Michael Solliday said, "It is in our best interest to keep locals safe during these harsh winter weather conditions. The more information they know, the less they will fear."

In order for people to stay collective during these storms, the Pensacola commercial plumbing company suggests that everyone stays informed and educated on cold weather conditions. Always maintain heaters and fireplaces, and monitor & unplug all electrical outlets to avoid unexpected fires, they say. When stepping out of the house, the team advises everyone to dress in warm layers and wash hands often to avoid winter-related illness. These tips and more will help everybody during the cold weather.

?So far 2018 has been off to a great start,? Solliday said. ?We want to make sure it stays great by constantly helping the people in our community and keeping safety methods everyone's number one priority.?
