Vero Beach Florida is ?America?s Happiest Seaside Town? Finalist

February 07, 2018

February 07, 2018 -

Vero Beach, FL: Vero Beach once again tops the list as a great place to live. Coastal Living Magazine is having a contest of America's Happiest Seaside Towns. Known as the ?Jewel of the Atlantic Coast?, Vero Beach boasts of its sophisticated but laid-back lifestyle. Located below the freeze-line it has the warmer weather people are looking for along but without all the traffic and crowds South Florida is usually known for.

Currently, Vero Beach holds the #3 spot in the magazine?s contest for the top 10 Coastal Towns in the nation. Online voting is open through 5 PM EST February 6th and one vote is allowed per minute for each IP address. Be sure to cast a vote: America's Happiest Seaside Town. The final rankings will be revealed on Tuesday, June 12, 2018.

There is a multitude of reasons why people fall in love with Vero Beach FL time and time again. The Huffington Post entertainment writer Xaque Gruber remarks, ?Unique in many ways, Vero is a quietly sophisticated coastal hamlet where blue-collar workers happily coexist with billionaires. Among its offerings: a world-class art museum, top-shelf street shopping, scenic natural wonders, and the best Atlantic beach south of Georgia. While most flock to Miami, Orlando, Tampa or the Keys (let them), Vero's under-the-radar charms makes it the real resort getaway.

Karen Mathers, top real estate agent and long-time Vero Beach resident specializes in 55+ active adult and retirement communities. She shares, "My retiree clients who bought their homes in Vero Beach believe that it is the best decision they have ever made. They like the quiet atmosphere with all of the necessities nearby. The culture is rich for those who love comedy, plays, musicals, or museums as they are all available here. Recreation is always close and the uncrowded beaches are breathtaking. Vero Beach is truly one of the best-kept secrets in South Central Florida."
