February 13, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

KellyCo Flowers & Gifts, a Pensacola flower shop, has announced that they have launched this year's Valentine's Day flowers and gifts. Flowers continue to be the most traditional and most appreciated of all Valentine's Day gifts and KellyCo seems to outdo itself year on year with its selection of bouquets, vases, and gifts. People are encouraged to browse the selection and have it delivered on time for Valentine's Day.

Michael Paris from KellyCo Flowers & Gifts says: "For a romantic Valentine's day, express your love with the best Valentine's Day flowers from KellyCo Flowers & Gifts. From romantic roses to impressive modern bouquets, we can help you select beautiful and affordable flowers for Valentine's Day and deliver them to Pensacola, FL, or nationwide. For a day filled with love and romance, look no further than KellyCo Flowers & Gifts."

The Pensacola florist is proud of the fact that they create both traditional bouquets and modern works of art. An example is found in their Zen Artistry bouquet, for instance, which makes use of the different elements of feng shui. The flowers are held in a brilliant green container decorated with an exotic palm leaf, after which purple orchids and tropical flowers are added. Michael Paris adds: "Purple dendrobium orchids, green carnations, dark pink Sweet William, an emerald palm leaf and other tropical greens are arranged in a square kiwi-colored container. Perfect when you've got a yen to send Zen."

KellyCo has been a popular florist for many years, with thousands of customers trusting them for their various special occasions. This is evident in their numerous positive testimonials. Ruben H. says on the company website, for instance: "I highly recommend their services to anyone. KellyCo Flowers is great business to get a wide variety of flowers and gifts. My order came in two hours after ordering, and they came exactly the way the order said it would. They last longer too."

Valentine's Day is only just around the corner, but many of the arrangements will continue to be in store long thereafter for other romantic moments. People are encouraged to visit the florist's website at <http://www.kellycoflowers.com> for the full selection.
