Newport Beach, California - Many patients come to the offices of Dr. Stefani T. Kappel seeking to look better and increase their self-esteem. Dr. Kappel is aware of this so she wanted to offer her patients tips on helping the results of their facelift last.

Dr. Kappel notes that it is important for facelift patients to protect their skin. This includes avoiding the sun, and using appropriate skincare products. She proceeds to offer advice on which skincare products are appropriate and how long the results can be expected to last if patients follow her advice.

In her blog at www.stefanikappelmd.com, Dr. Kappel seeks to provide professional advice concerning common cosmetic procedures. She wants her blog to be a place where people can go to find expert information regarding many of the most common dermatological and cosmetic procedures. Realizing there is a lot of incorrect information circulating on the internet, Dr. Kappel has chosen to share her knowledge with readers using this platform.

Dr. Kappel offers a variety of cosmetic procedures from facial rejuvenation and Botox to lip injections in Newport Beach. For more information about skincare and cosmetic surgery in Newport Beach, or to set up a consultation or schedule an appointment, call (949)239-0494.
