

Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis Offers Cost Saving DIY Tips On Toilet Replacement

February 27, 2018

February 27, 2018 -
Indianapolis, IN ? Indianapolis plumbing company recently made an announcement concerning toilet replacement. The company stated that, contrary to popular belief, this can be a DIY task, and its aim is to help homeowners tackle this project themselves.

Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis recently shared several tips on toilet replacement. The company stated that the purpose of this announcement was to provide helpful information to Central Indiana homeowners. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis went on to state that, while many people do not realize it, toilet replacement can actually be a DIY (?Do It Yourself?) task, and its goal was to help homeowners tackle this project with confidence.

Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis announced that the first step in replacing a toilet is shutting off the water supply. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis went on to state that the next step is to remove the lid and drain from the tank, followed by the cap and nuts at the base of the toilet. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis stated that wrenches and pliers are often needed for this step. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis announced that once these tasks are completed, the toilet can be removed. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis recommended placing a rag over the drain opening to prevent fumes from entering the house. For those looking to do their own toliet replacement they have the full instructions here.

Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis closed their instructions by providing some company information. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis has been based in the Indianapolis area for several years, and has substantial experience providing plumbing and gas fitting services to Indianapolis residents. The company stated that it employs licensed and insured master plumbers and gas fitters, who work quickly, efficiently, and safely. Midwest Plumbing Indianapolis went on to state that it operates on a 24/7 basis, in the interest of customer convenience. The company concluded by stating that it is family-owned and conducts business with honesty and integrity.
