July 02, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Andrew Simpson, founder of the company BadAss Beards, recently announced that their Beard Oil has been getting positive feedback from customers who have bought the product. The Beard Oil is currently being sold through Amazon, and to date, has over 70 customer reviews, with the most of them being positive.

Andrew Simpson stated that he is very grateful for all the positive feedback the company has received from their customers, and will continue on their quest to provide a high quality product and excellent customer service.

The Beard Oil by Badass Beards is available in a 1 ounce and 2 ounce bottle and contains a beard softener formula that is made up of 100% natural ingredients. Customers are able to use the Beard Oil on a daily basis in order to keep their beard knotless, soft to the touch and healthy looking throughout the day. The product is also designed to help reduce the onset of dandruff and itching, which is a typical occurrence with most bearded people.

One customer who bought the 2 ounce bottle wrote the following review on Amazon: "Finally, a beard product that doesn't smell overpowering. AND, added bonus, it works better than anything else I've used. Excellent!"

Andrew Simpson stated that one of the reasons why they have received such positive feedback from their customers is because the all natural ingredients in the Beard Oil are ethically sourced. "Those who buy our product know that we care about the environment, and for this, they wholeheartedly support us. The best part is that they are receiving a high quality beard grooming product as well", he added.

Another customer wrote the following review on Amazon: "Previously I used an astringent alcohol based product but went in search of a softer beard. After just a few applications I had achieved my goal. I was worried the "oil" product would cause acne or the smell would cause me to end up with a headache! However, all is well! My wife even appreciates the pleasant scent!"

Andrew Simpson said that another reason why their customers have been sending over positive feedback is because of the excellent shopping experience and fulfilling services offered by Amazon. He added that customers appreciate the ease at which they are able to get feedback from other shoppers who have purchased the product through Amazon, and once they make the decision to buy the Beard Oil, the delivery is fast.

Badass Beards also provides a 90 day money back guarantee to all of their customers. They stated that for whatever reason, if the customer is not happy with their purchase, the company will send them a full refund.
