

Oxnard Awards Company Celebrates Employee Retirement

March 05, 2018

March 05, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Aswell Trophy, an Oxnard trophies and awards company, is celebrating the retirement of Maria Sabido. Maria retired on Friday, January 26, 2018 after having served for 26 years in the company. She will be greatly missed and the company wishes her well on her retirement.

Trevor Ashton from Aswell Trophy says: "She retired on Friday January 26 after 26 years. She was in our production department. She assembled our plaques, shadow boxes, acrylic awards and nametags. We had a dinner after work on Friday with her coworkers and loved ones. She will be greatly missed here. Whenever we had a special project to handle, we would give it to Maria because she could figure it out. How to mount the items and lay them out in a beautiful design."

The Oxnard awards company has set itself apart as one of the best of its kind in the area. They offer a wealth of different types of awards, trophies, plaques, and more. The company has been family owned and operated since 1965. They offer in house engraving, etching, laser engraving, silkscreening and embroidery. Maria has been a part of this family since 1992 and has been an integral part of its development, watching new technologies and products get developed.

They offer anything from marketing tools to promote a business to awards of recognition and from signage to gifts for employees or clients. They can also work with the planning of special events, as they just did for Maria. The company prides itself on its tremendous experience and is ready to help their clients every step of the way until they are totally satisfied.

Aswell Trophy is known for its huge selection of excellent quality products as shown on the company's website at www.aswelltrophy.com. They offer competitive prices and an extremely dedicated customer service. Maria played an integral role in making this possible and her skills and knowledge will need to be replaced somehow. That said, at present, the company simply wants to wish Maria and her loved ones all the best, and for them to know that they will always be a part of the Aswell Trophy family.
