Fedex Shipping Company In Pensacola FL Offers Antique Shipping

March 30, 2018

March 30, 2018 -
Pack & Ship Business Center Creighton, a Fedex Shipping Pensacola FL service, is proud to announce that they offer a full antique shipping service. This service ensures that people can safely and securely package their antique items and have them sent to their destination. Antique shipping can be offered through UPS, FedEx, DHL or the US Postal Service, all of which have specific requirements for how items must be packed, which Pack & Ship is happy to help with.

Thomas Armstrong from Pack & Ship Business Center Creighton says: "Grandma's sewing table, a 200 year-old coo-coo clock, an original Gutenberg Bible, a Ming Dynasty vase - old stuff otherwise known as antiques. Most of us need to ship antiques sometime in our lives, but if you don't know the tricks behind antique shipping, it can be a disaster. It should be pointed out that anything shipped via UPS, FedEx, DHL or the US Postal Service must be packed well enough to sustain a 4-foot drop without breaking. We are expertly trained at making sure you meet such requirements."

Antique shipping is just one of the many things the Pensacola post office can offer. Uniquely, if they pack anything listed as an antique, they offer a full guarantee that the work is done properly. Few other businesses in the area offer a similar guarantee, which is why this company is so popular and so much more trusted than others.

Besides offering antique shipping, the company also provides artwork, bicycle, furniture, and electronics shipping, all of which have unique and complex packaging requirements. They work with DHL, FedEx, and the United States Postal Service and are trained in all their specific shipping requirements. Additionally, international postage and freight can also be organized.

"We are there for all your shipping needs, from receiving to sending," explains Thomas Armstrong. "We guarantee all the work that we do, so you can trust that your belongings are in good hands and will arrive at their destination exactly the way you sent them."
