Augusto Beato, CEO of Portland SEO, invited Belmont residents to sample the town's best espresso and sandwiches at the Kind Coffee Cart at the 42nd block of Southeast Belmont.

?From the cannoli to the breakfast sandwiches to the coffee to the always friendly staff, this place is simply great,? Beato exclaimed.

Kind Coffee offers such java favorites as Espresso, Macchiato, Con Panna, Cappuccino, Americano, and Latte, prepared in their special kind of way that makes it stand out.

Among the favorite sandwiches are their mushroom swiss bagel and BLT. Kind Coffee occasionally comes up with specials like the grilled cheese sandwich that can be dipped into a roasted tomato soup, courtesy of Chef Katie Hoyt.

This unassuming Belmont food truck also offers cannoli that was named by a Portland website as one of the city's two best.

Owner Francesca Cucolo has been filling nearly 200 cannoli each week since they opened in 2013. Cucolo calls her cannoli "self-proclaimed world famous," sourced from a secret family recipe.

She uses barely-sweet ricotta with semisweet chocolate chips for her cannoli that has a shell with a crisp cookie texture—stable enough to hold its shape. Their cannoli goes well with their Cafe Umbria Italian Espresso.

Kind Coffee also invites customers to try out their latte popsicle and iced coffee.

Kind Coffee food cart could be open as late as 8 PM, and customers can get "breakfast" at any time of the day at working class prices.
