May 01, 2018 -
Gross & Schuster, P.A., a car accident attorney firm in Pensacola, FL, has long been holding weekly radio shows. Due to the popularity of the shows, they have now been able to add a number of additional shows each week. In these shows, they will continue to discuss sports, legal issues, and politics.

"I love doing the radio shows," says Terrence A. Gross from Gross & Schuster, P.A.. "It gives me an opportunity to connect with the people in my community and to talk about the things that matter and that affect them. It isn't all serious, though. Obviously, Legal Talk is there to help people with their legal issues and to provide them advice on where they stand. My Sports Talk is a lot of fun, however, and I find the political open mic really enjoyable as well, because it gives others the opportunity to debate local and national politics."

On Mondays, the Pensacola accident lawyer will hold two sports talk shows, one starting at 11:45am and the other at 4:30pm. They can be listened to on 1450 AM and 1490 AM respectively. Wednesday is now home to four shows. Those are Legal Talk at 9:30am, 10:00am, and 10:30am, and 4pm until 6pm is the open mic political talk. These shows can be listened to on 1260 AM, 1370 AM, 1620 AM, and 1330 AM, respectively.

Finally, on Fridays, Sports Talk takes place at 9.30am on both 97.1 FM and 100.3FM. At 11am, he has Legal Talk at 1330 AM, followed by another Sports Talk at 11:45am on 1450 AM.

The Pensacola personal injury firm also has offices in Fort Walton, Milton and Crestview. They offer the same services and unwavering commitment to each of their clients from these locations, something they have become very popular for. It is clear that the law firm wants to ensure that people receive the best possible legal representation to obtain the compensation they deserve following a car accident, but that they equally want people to be informed of what their rights are and are able to have a little bit of fun as well.
