MN Auto Accident Attorney Expands Services To Truck Accidents

April 30, 2018

Minneapolis, Minnesota - April 30, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

McEwen & Kestner, PLLC, a MN personal injury attorney firm, is proud to announce that they have expanded their services to include truck accidents. In so doing, they are able to serve a greater cross-section of the population and help more people receive the compensation they are entitled to. Those interested are encouraged to contact the law firm for a free consultation.

Peter Kesner from McEwen & Kestner, PLLC says: "There are a number of reasons why truck accidents occur on the roads. Insurance providers are meant to handle these types of accidents and ensure you are fully compensated for your losses. But this is rarely the case. We are there to make sure that all parties are compensated fairly and justly."

The reason behind the truck accident is often cited by insurance companies as to why they do not make full payment. The inexperience of drivers, tiredness, unknown road and weather conditions, disobeying driving rules, and being distracted are often causes of truck accidents, although nobody generally wants to admit their fault. Peter Kesner continues: "McEwen & Kestner - Injury Attorneys will work with you to determine who should pay for this accident."

Insurance companies often fix the physical damage to trucks but do not cover things such as medical expenses, emotional strain, or rehabilitation fees. McEwen & Kestner will help to determine whether the truck driver, the trucking company, the trucking manufacturing company, or the truck mechanic was at fault, thereby ensuring the right person or entity pays what is owed to those who were injured.

This dedication to fairness is what has given McEwen & Kestner - Minneapolis PI Lawyers a solid positive reputation. Amanda says on the firm's website, for instance: "I highly recommend M&K, not only was the settlement much more than I anticipated, it was a pleasure to work with Pete and his staff. He is professional, polite and straightforward. His knowledge and litigation skill coupled with business manner, helped make the process easy and understandable. His analysis was thoughtful, honest and he explained complex concepts and procedures. I was very pleased with his expertise."

People involved in truck accidents are encouraged to contact the law firm as soon as possible.
