

Provider of Employment in Oregon City is Holding a Webinar about Navigating Change

April 27, 2018

April 27, 2018 -

Oregon City, Ore. - Express Employment Professionals, a provider of employment in Oregon City, OR, will be showing the webinar "Navigating Change in the Modern Workplace" featuring Monte Farrar. Viewers will be able to interact and ask questions to the experts during the webinar.

The training will discuss and analyze the concept of change in the workplace. Change is a common occurrence that many individuals do not respond well to; however, whether we are prepared for it or not, it happens. Examples of change in the workplace could be presented as buyouts, growth, decline, and more.

The webinar will help client and associates alike better understand the importance of change in the workplace and how to best turn it into growth and prosperity. Viewers will learn the importance that every employee has in a business and the importance of trust between coworkers. Lastly, viewers will be able to hear directly from Monte Farrar.

Monte Farrar is the Director of Human Resources Training at Express and has been working with human resources for more than 26 years. Farrar has an MBA, SPHR-SCP, SPHR, and PHRca that all show his excellence in human resourcing. He has worked with multiple companies that have helped him gain other skills such as leadership and consultation. Farrar is well equipped in explaining the method of change, communication, staffing, and much more.

The "Navigating Change in the Modern Workplace" webinar will take place Thursday, May 10, 2018, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. (CDT). Viewers can interact and ask questions to Farrar and other experts. The employment center in Oregon City, OR is looking forward to the webinar.
