Denver, Colo. - Express Employment Professionals, one of the recruitment agencies in Denver, CO that specializes in commercial, administrative and professional positions, has officially been ranked as the second largest staffing company in the Greater Denver Metro Area by the Denver Business Journal. Their publication feature called ?The List? named the top 20 staffing firms in its March 23-29 issue.

Express was also listed number one for ?Most W-2?s issued in 2017? from Denver area offices. This statistic is especially impressive given the fact that this number tripled the next highest company.

Express Denver Owner Troy McLeland said, ?As a locally owned franchise, we are honored to be a part of the Greater Denver Metro Area group of Express offices which include the Denver, Lakewood, Northglenn, Aurora, Longmont and Centennial locations. It?s all of our efforts combined to impact thousands of people each month.?

Express Employment Professionals? mission to provide staffing in Denver, CO for clients with the most qualified temporary and full-time employees available is fully underway. This acknowledgment by the popular business publication is a testament to the hard work and dedication the Denver office exhibits every day in their goal to exceed client and associate expectations.

Express Denver Owner and Business Developer Jennifer McLeland said, ?Each time I build a relationship with a new client, it warms my heart knowing that we are able to put more people to work in this incredible city. There is no better job satisfaction.?
