Huntington Beach, CA: When to collect Social Security may be the single most important decision seniors make when it comes to their retirement. In fact, timing could be everything! There are a lot of very common mistakes people make when signing up for Social Security? like assuming that attempting to draw full benefits at age 65 will allow for a sufficient and comfortable retirement.

Ryan Cravitz specializes in retirement planning and is hosting two free workshops on July 14th and July 16th dubbed ?Strategies for Maximizing Your Social Security Benefits.? These workshops are designed to help people learn little known strategies that are capable of boosting benefits and greatly increasing retirement income. Ryan is the founder of Milestone Wealth Management and leads the comprehensive wealth management and retirement planning firm. He specializes in working with seniors and soon to be retirees who are looking to achieve a comfortable and worry free retirement.

?Social Security Planning is a critical component of the overall Retirement Income Plan. It is a customized process and one size does not fit all. Special strategies should be developed for married couples, as opposed to divorced individuals and minor children," says Ryan. "Unfortunately, many go at this retirement planning task lacking specificity and one uninformed decision could potentially impact one's income by tens of thousands of dollars."

"There's a section within my workshops where I focus on the 'when', by explaining how what you don't know could cost you," adds Ryan. "By learning when to apply for Social Security and how to coordinate your benefits based on your unique situation it helps you make the best informed decisions to help avoid mistakes and maximize assets." The Strategies for Maximizing Your Social Security Benefits workshops take place at 6:30 PM, Tuesday July 14th and Thursday, July 16th at the Cypress Community Center, which is located at 5700 Orange Ave, Cypress, CA 90630. Seating is limited and reservations are required! Call Today to Guarantee Your Reservation: (714) 4629155.
