Pleasanton CA: The 680 Group website now makes available a wealth of information about buying and selling homes and just about everything that people need to know about the real estate business. The 680 Group is one of Pleasanton?s most established real estate companies and is owned by Doug Buenz, Pleasanton?s top Realtor®.

Since its establishment, The 680 Group has always been committed to providing an extraordinary customer experience to its clients. With the intent of guiding its clients every step of the way, the company has launched its website to provide the most comprehensive information and resources to help home buyers and sellers make the right decisions in a real estate transaction. Through these resources, the company is able to protect the interests of its clients, make the home buying and selling process as easy and stress-free as possible for them and ultimately help them achieve their real estate goals.

The Resources section of The 680 Group?s website currently offers a broad range of information about the schools and other important establishments in the area, as well as some tips and pieces of advice for buying, selling and financing a home. The website also offers weekly market trend reports, which are updated weekly to offer detailed analytics and graphs to help clients better understand the market in their respective cities. Under Real Estate News, clients can view in-depth stories about the business and keep themselves current on all the important issues affecting buyers, sellers and the real estate industry in general.

Doug and his team of professional real estate agents pride themselves on their in-depth understanding of the real estate market and are dedicated to sharing this with their clients. One of Doug and The 680 Group's previous clients, R. Scott, remarked, "Doug took care of everything. He educated us about the house and its strengths and weaknesses. He candidly described the changing market. He was able to formulate a strategy and execute it with desirable results. An amazing experience considering the number of steps required to effectively sell our older home."

Another satisfied client, D. Rubin, also said in his review, "Doug and his team handled 3 transactions for us over the past 12 months and his service was truly outstanding. He went above and beyond what was needed and did what he said that he would do, when he said that he would do it. His market perspective, advice and guidance was totally on mark and enabled us to realize our maximum potential. I will wholeheartedly recommend Doug to others and if we ever return, I will be calling on him again."

Aside from valuable resources, the 680 Group's website, 680homes.com, also features a gallery of the company's sold homes, as well as some success stories that demonstrate how Doug and his team go the extra mile in assisting their clients. The website also includes the company's active listings and some information about the communities that they cater to.

About Doug Buenz:

Doug started selling residential properties in 1989 and has since then loved everything about real estate. He attended Oregon State University, where he graduated with honors in Finance and Economics. Since entering the real estate business, he has focused much of his professional training on the art of negotiation. He attended the Program of Negotiation (PON) at Harvard Law School and currently holds a certificate from the Harvard Negotiation Institute.
