Salem, Ore. - Not only does a provider of temp services in Salem, OR help thousands of individuals join the workforce, they also help bring hope by volunteering in their communities. For 35 years, Express Employment Professionals has been partnering with a great variety of nonprofit organizations and serving their communities. Even though they are consistently involved, they annually set aside one day from work to give back to their communities. This day is called Brand It Blue.

For the last four years, Brand It Blue has managed to provide almost 600,000 meals to those in need. Brand It Blue does not just work with local food banks and cases of hunger. Many franchises delve into all kinds of charities. Some help build a better education in their community; others help animal shelters. Depending on the areas, the franchise offices are passionate about a variety of causes.

The Express Salem Branch Manager Jennifer Butler said, "Our team is proud to be a part of a company that puts so much emphasis on the well-being of our community. We hope to really make a difference this Brand It Blue Day."

On June 2nd, the Express Salem team will get involved with the Walk for Hope & Fun Run put on by the UGM of Salem. This event is meant to help and spread awareness for all those individuals living on the streets. Brand It Blue Day is more than just an event that happens annually. It's more than just good community relations. The day is a year-long, expanded philanthropic effort. Express Employment Professionals wants to make memories, to make a difference, to change lives, and to give hope. This staffing agency in Salem, OR stresses creating hope in their community.
