

Sandy Springs Retirement Living Community Appoints New Assisted Living Director

May 29, 2018

May 29, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Hammond Glen Retirement Community, a premier, award-winning, independent senior living community in Sandy Springs, Georgia, has appointed 18-year industry veteran Yvette Montague to the position of Assisted Living Director. Montague will oversee The Haven at Hammond Glen, the community's personal care wing, which is specifically focused on providing specialized assistance of daily senior living to residents who require heightened levels of care. Located on the second floor of Hammond Glen, the wing's staff-to-resident ratio ensures the finest care available to residents, who enjoy spacious studio or one-bedroom apartments plus a private Creative Corner and the Haven Cafe. More information about the retirement living community can be found at <https://www.sunshineretirementliving.com/sandy-springs-retirement-living/>.

Since 2000, Montague has served in management level positions at senior communities in Georgia. She is a graduate of Broward College in Fort Lauderdale, with a focus in Healthcare Administration. She also studied at the Institute for Medical Services in Stone Mountain, Georgia. At The Haven at Hammond Glen, she will ensure an enduring focus on 'People, Passion and Excellence', while leading onsite physical therapy and caregiving services, and care programs related to medication management, personal hygiene and other daily living activities.

"Yvette comes to The Haven at Hammond Glen with two decades of valuable leadership experience at senior living communities," said Luis Serrano, CEO, Sunshine Retirement Living. "Most importantly, however, she is passionate about caring for the residents under her care, and providing a safe, nurturing and compassionate environment for both residents and team members. We are fortunate to have Yvette join the Sunshine Retirement Living family."

Managed by family-owned Sunshine Retirement Living, Hammond Glen is located at 335 Hammond Drive in Sandy Springs. The resort-style community offers one- and two-bedroom apartments with complimentary utilities, on-call apartment maintenance, and weekly housekeeping services. The community also provides all-day dining with gourmet, chef-prepared meals served restaurant-style, complimentary local transportation, free common-area Wi-Fi, front desk concierge, and access to the salon, library, gym, computer center, Sports Zone, retro malt shop, movie theater and outdoor lanai, which includes a fish pond, fire pit and waterfall. Residents also enjoy a full calendar of daily social and physical activities, including outings to local attractions, performances by entertainment groups, fitness classes and games.
