A plastic and cosmetic surgery clinic in Lutherville-Timonium, MD, is proud to announce that Dr. Jeffrey E. Schreiber, the clinic's plastic surgeon, has been named as Top Contributor from RealSelf. This comes after Dr. Schreiber was ranked as a 4.9 star professional with the 215 reviews that he has received. Furthermore, his profile has been viewed more than 103,000 times and he has provided more than 3,000 expert answers.

"I am pleased to offer the latest cosmetic surgery techniques," says Dr. Schreiber himself. "I have years of experience in all aspects of breast augmentation surgery following my training at the Johns Hopkins Hospital and the University of Maryland. Not only does this enable me to offer my patients a safe and reliable cosmetic surgery experience, it also ensures that I can provide them with the information and education they need to make an informed decision about any procedures they would like to have completed."

Breast augmentations are one of the most common procedures that Dr. Jeffrey Schreiber provides, although he also offers a wealth of other cosmetic solutions. These include body contouring, facial rejuvenation, micro needling, hair transplants, mommy makeovers, CoolSculpting, labiaplasty, and MiraDry. People are encouraged to contact the clinic for a free, no obligation consultation to help determine whether any procedures would be suitable for them and how such procedures can help them enhance their self-esteem.

One of the main reasons why the plastic surgeon has been recognized by RealSelf is because of his wealth of positive reviews. One happy patient says on RealSelf: "My experience with Dr. Schreiber and his staff was fantastic. Everyone at the office was friendly and professional and I immediately felt comfortable and at ease. I was on the fence when choosing the correct size implant and am so glad I listened to Dr. Schreiber's expert advice. My surgery went perfectly and I am 100% happy with the result."

Because Dr. Schreiber of the Baltimore Plastic and Cosmetic Surgery Center is now a Top Contributor, people are encouraged to contact him directly or through RealSelf if they have any questions. He will be happy to provide a full answer and explain any remaining issues, so people can be empowered to make an informed decision.
