?While having a business website is incredibly important, it often loses that human feel. My website does not tell you who I am, what my background is, and why I am so passionate about marketing. This is why I have decided to also launch my blog page, to better connect with my clients on a business level.?- Dimple Bestudio

With that, the Dimple Bestudio Blog was born. Her goal is to provide you with a glimpse at the person who is the driving force behind her website. Offering the opportunity to come to know her and connect with her as a professional.

With a background in social media and marketing goes beyond just a passion. Dimple Bestudio earned degrees in both Journalism, and Mass Communication while attending the University of Mindanao. After attending the University of Mindanao she gained first-hand experience working with numerous communication and marketing businesses. During this time she also founded several online organizations including, God?s Motivations.

Dimple Bestudio best explains her goals: ?I am passionate about social media marketing, consulting, and in managing and constructing a powerful expert brand. My goal is to help local and medium businesses take control of their internet web nearness and present themselves in a way that rouses, impresses, and builds trust and showcases their capacities, products, and services.?

To bring that vision to life Dimple Bestudio launched a very successful LinkedIn Page. Through this, she has networked over 500+ influential contacts. Adding to the numerous endorsements that she obtained from her work in social media, email marketing, and customer satisfaction.

In the time Dimple Bestudio has worked in these fields she has been recognized for her knowledge in the fields of marketing, business development, call centers, vendor management, search engine optimization, CRM and her excellent grasp of interpersonal skill.

It is with these resources, experience, and skills that Dimple wants to help others.

?I encourage everyone to connect with me to discuss how I can be of assistance. Please do send me a direct message so we can get the ball rolling. Whichever element of marketing you are interested in, I am sure that I can help you to make your business grow.? - Dimple Bestudio
