June 11, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola, FL- Being one of the top Pensacola florist, KellyCo is all about providing something special to give during those special holidays. Mother's Day gives them another chance to help people give something special to someone special. The employees at KellyCo see that many of the same flower selections, plus more, are equally appreciated by moms all over. KellyCo says that Mother's Day becomes a much broader range of flowers and plants to gift, it just all depends on "Mom's favorite".

"We want to remind our customers that Mother's Day is very important for our flower shop, the volume grows each year." Michael Paris, who is the owner of KellyCo said. "We suggest calling early to place your order."

As one of the top suppliers of Flowers in Pensacola, Kellyco wants to remind customers of a few things. If a customer paid with a credit card, the account is not going to be charged until after the delivery is in their system. They want to make sure they have filled a customers order before they are charged for it. Kellyco wants guest to remember to call them early, because even with extra sales, design and delivery help, they will reach a capacity on orders.

"We always help give the gift so perfect that it opens itself," Michael Paris said.
