July 01, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atlanta, GA based law firm, Hartman Imbriale LLP, have expanded their services and are now offering personal injury attorney services in Decatur, GA. The firm believes that the town has an unmet need for this type of legal representation, and wants the township to know that they are willing to work with them and help individuals to regain normalcy after an accident or injury. The team at Hartman Imbriale LLP reportedly offers some of the best representation in this field, due to some of their top attorneys having worked for insurance companies in the past. This experience is said to offer them an advantage against large agencies who may try to renege on policy claims. The company states:

"In addition to Decatur Ga, we're also interested in representing clients in Stone Mountain, Brookhaven, Clarkston, Lithonia, Hapeville, Jonesboro and other neighboring cities and suburbs of Dekalb County. We have a superb track record of getting our clients "made whole" in Dekalb County and would love to be of help to your community."

Some individuals may recognize this type of legal help by the title of car accident lawyers. The team at Hartman Imbriale LLP works with victims of motorcycle, car, tractor-trailer, and truck accidents, as well as those who have suffered from medical malpractice, wrongful death or product defects. They list all of the cases they cover on the firm website. Here potential clients can also view the staff, find additional offices, or contact the firm. They explain:

"At Hartman-Imbriale, your case is all about you, not the ego of a lawyer. Other firms may say they can handle a case on their own when they lack the necessary experience in area of the law. Good intentions aside, all too often we have seen this mistake occur over the last 20 years. We, however, will take care of you because we know how to obtain the best result for our clients."

The company has decided to branch out, mainly because they say that the number of personal injury attorneys in Decatur GA is far below par. The firm has made it known that they are passionate about helping their clients get what they deserve, and want to offer these services to those in local areas where they may not have had the opportunity to do so before. In claims where injuries and accidents occur, it can often be difficult to find compensation through insurance. This is why lawyers like those from Hartman Imbriale LLP exist, to help those who know little about the industry to fight for what they know is right.

Hartman Imbriale LLP have been serving Georgia since 1990, and have stated their experience and tenacity as reasons why their firm works harder than competitor firms to get their clients what they feel is owed to them. They invite all those interested in learning more about their firm or injury attorneys to visit them online at their firm website, through their social media account on Facebook.com, or contact them by telephone or e-mail for more information.
