Rehoboth Beach, DE. -- The shipping company, MailBizz Express, has added a brand new printer to their store. This new equipment will help them with other services they offer. MailBizz Express does not just help with packaging and shipping in Rehoboth Beach DE; they also offer printing services. With their new larger JMP color printer, MailBizz Express is ready to help all clients that need things printed.

The JMP color printer is top notch technology. JMP is a side company from the large organization known as SAS. As of now, SAS is the number one leader for business software. This software is advanced in analytical services. SAS created JMP that concentrates on graphic software; they work with over 6,000 businesses including Apple. Their printers are one of a kind that creates perfect artwork with an advanced control system.

With this new printer, MailBizz Express will offer a lot of services. They can help clients with flyer or brochure designs. They can also print them in bulk. With that, they can create posters and photos. MailBizz Express can now help clients with graphic design and printing. This Rehoboth Beach printing company has the ability to help clients in all sorts of ways. Those who are trying to make flyers for an event or even posters for work, MailBizz Express can help.

"We are excited to incorporate this new color printer into our services," says Victoria Kopunek, owner of MailBizz Express. "Anyone looking to start a business, promote an event, or even complete a school project can get the help they need from MailBizz Express."
