Nifty Thrifty says of the product: "There is nothing more soothing to me than laying in my hammock and listening to the breeze hitting a nice set of wind chimes...so I just had to have this wind chimes to hang on my porch! These arrived quickly and were nicely packaged. It's a nice wind chime and does make a significant amount of beautiful chimes for the size. It is made from read wood and sturdy metal and I feel that this wind chime will hold up to the elements and last me for a very long time...so over all I am pleased with this wind chime. My suggestion is to just be sure to check the size and make sure it is what you are looking for...though with that said, good thing comes in small packages and this wind chime does its job nicely!"
