

Full House Sacramento Movers Go The Extra Mile With Its Full Range Of Services

June 29, 2015

June 29, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Full House Movers, a moving company based in Sacramento, California, is offering its full services to individuals and businesses looking for help with their next interstate move. The company provides moving services from state to state, and specializes in long-distance moves.

As a licensed long-distance moving company, Full House Movers aim to carry out its services with extreme care and professionalism. Going from Point A to Point B has never been this easy, as Full House Movers Sacramento CA offers a long list of services to accommodate every client's need.

Full House Movers offer customizable moving plans for residential and commercial moves. For long-distance residential moves, Full House Movers provide packing and storage services, as well as an availability of moving supplies to help with the transporting of delicate goods and materials. For commercial moves, the company provides moving equipment that will enable your business to move with ease. Security is of the highest priority to ensure every business' safety. Power equipment is also provided to make sure every move will be completed efficiently. SC Movers and moving teams are uniformed, courteous, and efficient. Free moving estimates can also be checked online with the company granting a 10% discount per estimate, no questions asked.

With this impressive number of services in tow, Full House Movers invite its Sacramento-based businesses and individuals to take advantage of a superior moving experience only they can provide.

"Customer satisfaction is of the highest priority," a proud supervisor at Full House Movers shares. "We move with our customers in mind in order to get things moving and done with ease. It's all about the customer's convenience, efficiency, and security. That's what gives us the edge."

A lot of clients have expressed satisfaction after choosing Full House Movers to help them with their interstate moves. "Since Full House Movers opened, my business operations have become smoother. Now, I don't need to worry about long-distance transactions?I'm sure my stuff will get in Texas or wherever in the United States in one piece," one client stated in a feedback review. Another testimonial from a returning customer on the company's website reads: "I just wanted to let you know that the furniture arrived on time, and once again, the driver and the crew to unload were great."

As the number of highly satisfied clients continues to rise, Full House Movers remain committed to providing exceptional moving services while holding on to a high standard of service that has earned them a place among Sacramento's top moving companies.

###

For more information about Full House Movers, contact the company here:Full House MoversShaul Dadon(916) 849-8999 contact@fullhousemovers.net 4208 N Freeway Blvd #1b Sacramento, CA 95834

Full House Movers

Sacramento's premier moving company! Looking for the best movers in Sacramento? Full House Movers is a fully licensed moving company in Sacramento and we have the experience and customer service to prove it.

Website: <http://fullhousemovers.net/>

Email: contact@fullhousemovers.net

Phone: (916) 849-8999

