Miramar, FL: Herman ProAV, America's largest distributor of factory authorized replacement parts for consumer electronics, has just launched a new 6 feet hdmi cable, as a part of their 2018 launch of new product lines in the consumer electronics.

According to David Wolf, spokesperson at Herman ProAV, "We at Herman ProAV are thrilled to announce the launch of our 25 feet HDMI cables that provides its users a chance to enjoy ultra high definition video at 2160p. Beyond this, it supports 3D video, 48 bit deep color and wide-angle theatrical 21:9 videos - making it the perfect HDMI cable for you."

One of the unique features of these high speed hdmi cables is that it provides simultaneous multi-stream audio to multiple users, boasting a Dolby True HD, DTS-HD Master Audio and up to 1536kHz audio sample frequency. It has 19 Pin Type A Male to Male connectors with CL3 rated jackets and 24k gold plated connectors that ensures that its customers receive the highest audio and video quality from their Blu - Ray player, Apple TV, PS4, PS3, Fire TV, Xbox One, Xbox 360, computers and other HDMI enabled devices. It also acts as an internet cable and can comfortably support up to 10.2 GBP in high speed transfer.

The products are already proving to be a huge hit amongst the consumers with one happy buyer stating, "Item is exactly as described and gets the job done. The cord feels sturdy and thick -- it won't be falling apart any time soon. I purchased this to connect my laptop to my TV. I was constantly stealing the HDMI cord from my husband's playstation and it was making him crazy! This one feels higher quality than the playstation cord, even."
