Colony 123 Quick Print LLC, a new merger printing business in East Orange, NJ and with a shop office in Newark, NJ, is proud to announce that they are now open for business. They offer all kinds of printing services and guarantee to match or beat any printing prices that people have been quoted elsewhere. Those interested are encouraged to contact the company for a quote.

Clinton Robinson from Colony 123 Quick Print LLC says: "We are very excited to be able to open our doors, a little bit ahead of schedule in fact. We offer extensive commercial and retail digital printing services. These include full color digital printing services. We serve all of East Orange and guarantee that our prices are the best in the business. Indeed, we are able to guarantee that we will beat or match any genuine like for like quote."

As a retail printer, the company offers a wide range of services. They also fully understand that businesses often need to have a prototype before going ahead with a printing job. Hence, the company prides itself on being able to offer prototyping services, right from the design stage to the actual printing. Clinton Robinson continues: "We will provide you with full samples of what it will look like and make sure that your production run will be as cost effective as possible."

In addition, Colony 123 has technologically advanced equipment available that allow printing in the digital format as quickly as possible. They offer six color inks as well as brilliant white, and they are able to print huge sizes using a flatbed. Furthermore, they can print roll to roll for even larger jobs.

Clinton Robinson explains: "We offer UV curing on many of our print jobs, all of which are VOC free and hence completely safe. We can bond these on a variety of different materials and media, including flexible foam panels, vinyl films, PVC, rigid foam, polystyrene, polycarbonate, polyester, tarpaulins, wood, and acrylic. Also, depending on the material, it is even possible to stretch it after printing without the stress making the color look lighter. We really pride ourselves on what we do and are sure that our customers will love our services as well."

The printing company is one of the first of its kind in this part of New Jersey and they aim to set themselves apart as the go to printing service provider and as members of the community. This is why their service is bespoke and driven by the needs of their clients. Regardless of what the printing requirements are, Colony 123 has a solution available. Possible solutions include POS & SES signs, flags, stickers, canvases, light boxes, pop-up roller banners, and a variety of other graphic displays. They also guarantee the quality of their work and products. Clinton says: "Our staff members are highly trained and have relevant market knowledge. They leverage this to make sure that your business stands out from the crowd, giving you an edge over the competition."

He further explains: "We take the time to really listen to what our clients want and need and we develop marketing solutions based on that. Our goal is to ensure that clients have a better experience through improved signage and by drawing their attention to special offers, new products, events, and more."

Colony 123 is able to offer retail printing services on a range of different materials, including promotional POS, display stands, tents cards, strut cards, printed packaging, and cardboard FSDU's and CTU's. Regardless of the size of the job, they will assist with every element, from design to print to the eventual installation, if in a local area.

They also place a strong focus on indoor signage, which is vital to the successful operation of many businesses. Clinton continues: "We have created a number of hard-wearing, innovative signs that are eye catching and vibrant, helping you improve the looks and functionalities of your buildings. We are specialists in the world of digital printing, so we can create a variety of outstanding prints using a range of substrates and materials. And best of all, we have a very quick turnaround time."

This printing business also offers wall and floor graphics, bespoke wallpapers, posters and banners, and more. They aim to deliver on any printing need that a company may have, ensuring that the images are created beautifully, sharply, and without any color issues, at the most affordable prices. They encourage anyone to contact them as soon as possible or to visit them in their shop office in Newark, NJ, for further information.
