San Antonio TX: Top San Antonio real estate company, Real Estate Muses, is taking strides to provide better assistance to military members who are relocating to San Antonio. Following the launch of the sanantoniomilitaryrelocation.com website, the company has made available the PCS (Permanent Change of Station) checklist to help military families stay on top of their PCS move to the city.

Growing up in a military family herself, Real Estate Muses owner Melissa Wiggans understands how stressful preparing for a PCS move can be. This move refers to the move of military members from one duty station to another and applies to transfers that are more than 50 miles away from the old duty station. A PCS move involves a lot of careful planning and requires coordination, especially when a military member is moving with his family.

As a real estate agent, Melissa's goal is to make PCS relocations less of a chore for military members. ?I have always wanted to serve the military in a big way since I appreciate so much all the military has done for my family through my dad and his friends in the military. This is what led me eventually on my path to help military families relocate to San Antonio," says Melissa.

As she seeks to make military relocation easier for military members, Melissa has launched a website that particularly caters to military members who are making a move to San Antonio. This website offers a wealth of resources that make relocations less taxing and overwhelming for them, including tips for planning their move and finding a home near the military posts in San Antonio. Recently, the website also started offering free PCS checklists for military members who are moving to the city. This checklist helps military members take charge of their move to San Antonio by breaking down their tasks into weekly to-do lists.

The PCS checklist gives moving military members a head start on what to expect, who they need to contact and what they need to know before, during and after their move to San Antonio. Since Melissa understands how taxing a military move can be, she has made available this checklist to help military members get started with their preparations as soon as they receive orders, which usually happens five months to two weeks prior to their report date to their new command.

To ensure a successful move to San Antonio, the PCS checklist offers a detailed inventory list of all the things that a military member needs to accomplish prior to his relocation. Military members can download and print this checklist for free.

Having lived and worked in San Antonio throughout her real estate career, military members can trust that she can make their military relocations hassle-free. One of her clients from the military, Moreno Michael, wrote in his review, "I just relocated to San Antonio and utilized Melissa Wiggans as my agent to assist me in locating a home in a specific area and within my budget. She exceeded all my expectations adjusting to my ever changing requirements. Once I settled on a home, that's when I learned what an expert Melissa is in her field! Melissa meticulously handled all details and closed within 14 days. Working for the military, I have made many major moves throughout my career. I have used many real estate agents and have never received such professional service."
