Panama City, Fla. - This past month, Disaster Response Team, an emergency response team in Panama City, was the official sponsor of the Panama City Beach Chamber of Commerce's event, Business After Hours. This event was an opportunity for Beach Chamber members to network and make beneficial business connections over appetizers and cocktails. The meet and greet was held at Tides inside of the Sheraton Bay Point Resort.

The Panama City Beach Chamber of Commerce exists to advocate and partner with members to support, encourage, and expand business development and tourism, thereby enhancing the quality of life in the community. The Chamber is the foundation for a thriving tourism industry and the catalyst for a nationally competitive and economically diverse business community.

"We are extremely proud to be the sponsors of an event put on by an organization that continues to do so much at every level for our local community," said Mark Broersma, owner of Disaster Response Team.

Disaster Response Team is a full-service restoration company that helps residential and commercial customers of Panama City restore their properties after disasters of all kinds. Simply put, they help put people's lives back together when disaster strikes. Whether a customer needs damage restoration services, emergency clean-up, or complete reconstruction, Disaster Response Team stands ready to provide fast, reliable service 24-hours a day, 7-days a week, 365 days a year.

The Panama City emergency response team has technicians trained and certified by nationally-recognized restoration organizations such as the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, and Restoration Certification (IICRC). Disaster Response Team is also a proud member of the Disaster Kleenup International (DKI) network. DKI is the largest property damage restoration organization in North America.
